

Our August blog posts are up on our website. We welcome you to share them with your mates / members / clients. We love sharing our knowledge in the Government compliance space and we hope you get something out of these updates.

Please do contact us with questions, observations, or perhaps topics you would like us to cover.

Here's what you can expect this month:

- Site Specific Safety Plans
- Totika for Subbies
- ACC Invoices
- Couple of big wins
- Medical Certificates
- Client Profile

SSSP's

I met a H&S specialist last week working for a main contractor who was rather miffed with me when I said that a SSSP is not specifically a legal requirement... read blog post

Totika For Subbies - free 30 min Power Session

You should have heard about Totika by now... if not, no worries, you will. Totika will be mandated soon by a host of main contractors and funders as the framework to manage your prequals. It is actually in your favour... but will Sitewise be enough? We are hosting a 30 min free webinar on this on 2 September @ 8am. register

Two Wins Worth Noting

We do what we do because employers are not well looked after in the ACC space.

Regardless of size and might, most employers need a hand when it comes to the ACC risk as it is such a specialist field. This covers both levies and claims... read blog post

ACC Invoices

You have heard of mortgage brokers and insurance brokers, right? We do the same but in the ACC space. Let's face it, not many (if any) employers enjoy paying their ACC bill! read blog post

Medical Certs

Medical certificates are possibly (probably?) the worst thing to have when it comes to managing workplace claims.... read blog post

Featured Client

We have worked with Utemaster for a wee while now and love what they do. They have gone from strength to strength and quite frankly make a ute look darn good! Chances are you will have seen their products on the road... check them out
